

Hi Paul

I hope you are well.

I thought you might be interested to know that both L and I have now heard back from the Revenue regarding our respective disclosures. Thankfully, both of these disclosures have been accepted without further query: although we had nothing in particular to be worried about, it is very nice to have the slate officially wiped clean!

Thanks once again for all your excellent help on these matters - we shall certainly come back to you if we are in need of further tax advice in the future.

Best regards

Mr & Mrs N, West Yorks
